

18th Annual Montreal Brain Tumour Walk

“Participating in the Montreal Brain Tumour Walk is very important for my family”

Montreal, Quebec, May 30, 2019 – On Sunday June 9, 2019, Brain Tumour Foundation of Canada returns to Montreal for its 18th annual Brain Tumour Walk. Joining this year’s event is the Ross Family. Their young son Félix is a brain tumour survivor.

“Survivors like Félix and his family are the heart of Brain Tumour Foundation of Canada and for 18 years, we’ve had the privilege to walk with this incredible group of people affected by an often-devastating disease,” says Susan Marshall, CEO.

Little Felix was only 3 years old when he received his diagnosis. “Participating in the Montreal Brain Tumour Walk is very important for my family.” Explains Félix’s mother Mélanie. “Brain Tumour Foundation of Canada’s support throughout this whole process was essential to us, especially their GOcervo pediatric program. They support us and understand what we are going through during this difficult period. We are looking forward to the event!”
